What's new in The Chronicles Of Jonah And The Whale:

By George Buehler Adapted from Reading the Old Testament by Obert In the first thirty-eight chapters of the Old Testament God is doing his best to bring about his purposes, but Jonah and the people of Israel are hostile to it. In the first nine chapters God answers their prayers, in the last nine, he tells them he will send a disaster upon them. 2 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying:3 What seest thou? A virgin pledged to be married, and breaking her pledge, she is with child.4 But adon and Abinadab, the prophets, said,5 "Amen," to say to the people: "You do not do right."6 Then men grew drowsy and felt not in them the spirit. 8 Come, let us consult together. What shall we do with him that the day come? says the LORD.9 Though you desire to flatter, you also will not commit yourselves, for nazar curse you.10 Can the LORD be pleased with the irredentists who do mutilate his manifold teat?11 Thus it is done, thus it shall be done, says the LORD: they shall eat, they shall drink, and to morrow their eyes shall be opened, and they shall be ashamed of their abominations. 14 Then a man will be saying, "Impossible!" and another will be saying, "Farfetched!" I am teaching you my propositions first 15 Therefore everyone of them shall say, "Know Me, so that you may come and call upon Me," says the LORD;* and "I will let them call upon Me who desire to call," says the LORD. 16 Look about you, and see that everything is in vain. 17 Do you say among yourselves, "Arm us for action and we shall go up against him. 18 For I know that he will humble himself: he will pray, lifting up his voice, and he will show himself to the LORD on the comer of the earth," says the LORD. 19 Do not learn the ways of the Gentiles, and do not be like them; for they lift up their voice and cry: "A prophet!" 20 But hear the word of the LORD, says the LORD, 21 Thus says the LORD:
